

'DROWNING'

Every day, the world is drowning in plastic with the excessive amount we use. Humans have become so reliant on plastic that we are using it nonstop, while leaving the planet to suffer tremendously. Plastic is polluting our environment, and harming the creatures we share the Earth with. Before we literally drown from our wasteful habits, we must do something. HELP OUR FUTURE BEFORE IT IS TOO LATE.

Photography by Cassie Manuatu, Kayla Kerapa, and Chelsey Gosling.
Maeroa Intermediate, Hamilton.